Programme Overview

Multimedia programme prepares and equips students with the required technical skills and knowledge for employment that use multimedia applications in any industry. Students will get exposure to digital media applications: web design, interactive multimedia, audio and video production, mobile apps, animation, and digital-media-related skills required by the industry. Students can utilise different visual and technical skills, such as imaging programs or animation software, depending on the specialty within multimedia design. Upon graduation, students can pursue careers in graphic design, multimedia design, marketing, advertising, and many other creative industries.
